

Appendix 5 – Extracts from the Rules of the Game concerning “Blue card”

Current version

New version

16:7 After calling a time-out, the referees shall clearly indicate the disqualification to the guilty player or team official, and to the timekeeper/ scorekeeper, by holding up a red card (hand signal no. 13).

16:8 A disqualification of a player or team official is always for the entire remainder of the playing time. The player or official must leave the court and the substitution area immediately. After leaving, the player or official is not allowed to have any form of contact with the team.

The disqualification of a player or a team official, on or off the court, during the playing time, always carries with it a 2-minute suspension for the team. This means that the team’s strength on the court is reduced by one (16:3f). The reduction on the court will, however, last for 4 minutes if a player has been disqualified in the circumstances indicated in Rule 16:9b-d.

A disqualification reduces the number of players, or officials, which is available to the team (except as in 16:11b). The team is, however, allowed to increase the number of players on the court again following the expiration of the suspension.

As noted in rules 8:6 and 8:10, disqualifications in accordance with these rules are to be reported in writing to the responsible authorities for further action. In such cases, the ‘responsible team officials’, and the delegate (see Clarification No. 7), shall be informed immediately after the decision.
