

Ice Hockey Club HUSKIES Code-of-Conduct

This Code-of-Conduct policy is published by Ice Hockey Club HUSKIES to be effective to all players, parents, coaches, off-ice persons, team managers and club board members while participating in any Ice Hockey Club HUSKIES activities such as

- I will enjoy playing Ice Hockey and will be a good ambassador of the sport.
- I will act in good manner when representing Ice Hockey Club HUSKIES and will privilege the spirit of sport.
- I will practice and play ice hockey with good intentions not purposely seeking to injure or insult other people
- I will enhance good team spirit
- I will respect the rules and decisions of my Club, referees and those of the Ice Hockey League
- I will go against racism and will not encourage such comments or gestures.
- I will leave the locker room clean, and return borrowed equipment in perfect state.
- I will not intentionally damage or harm club equipment, the ice hockey arenas or other facilities
- I will help the coaches and other players where help is needed
- When I will travel for the championship with my team, I will stay on the team bus and hotel
- I will not drink alcohol in the locker rooms nor on the bus or in the ice rink.
- I will always act and talk respectfully with the persons around me.
- I will keep coaches and/or team manager(s) informed when I am not able to attend practices or games
- I will be responsible for my actions on and off ice
- My parent(s) and I will be financially responsible for any penalty or sanction submitted by the Luxembourg Ice Hockey Federation or the French league due to my misconduct or misbehavior during games. Failure to pay such sanction or penalty may result in temporary or long term suspension from HUSKIES ice hockey activity.

I have read and understood this Code-of-Conduct policy and acknowledge that Ice Hockey Club HUSKIES reserves the right to apply corrective action related to above items if such is needed, including and not limited to temporary suspension.
